The Devil's in the Dance Hall – Saturday 22nd November in Mullagh Community Hall

Co. Clare was a hotspot for prosecutions under the 1935 Dance Halls Act. A widow in Cooraclare was summoned after a sergeant passing her home at 1:30 in the morning noticed many bicycles outside and heard music. Around thirty people were inside in the kitchen; some had travelled considerable distances, as far as Kilmihi, about twelve miles away. They were flat out dancing a set with reels bursting from a flute player in the corner.

The widow had hosted dances at her house both before and after the Act came in. She did not take money on the door, she said she had no need, but ran the dances for neighbours who helped with her farm. The judge remarked with some astonishment:

... this lady, whose dancing days in the natural order of things should be over, had organised a dance and invited people there. She was not very flush in the world's goods; still she could bring people there and have a dance in her house. He could not see what amusement she got from watching people dance up to 2am when she should be in her bed. So it's only right that we bring The Devil's in the Dance Hall to west Clare! Come join us in Mullagh Hall, 22nd November, where we'll step back to the 1930s and dance the night away to the roaring sounds of the Gralton Big Band. Expect set dancing, sean nós, shim shamming and scandal!

THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION AND YOUTH has launched an important survey, inviting parents, guardians, staff, and board members of primary schools to express their views on the future of our primary schools. This is a unique opportunity for members of our school communities to "have your say" and help shape the direction of education for the next generation. The link to the survey is: <https://www.gov.ie/en/departments-of-education/campaigns/primary-school-survey/> I strongly encourage any of the above groups to participate in the survey and share your opinion. If you are interested in change or also very importantly if you are happy with the current patronage and Catholic ethos and would like it to continue, please ensure that voice is represented before the 16th of December.

ANAM CARA will be hosting an Online Bereavement Information Evening on Thursday 20th of November at 7pm for bereaved parents. Niamh Fitzpatrick will be our guest speak for the evening, brining together her personal experience of grief and her professional expertise as a psychotherapist. Niamh has degrees in Psychology, Clinical Psychology, and Sport Psychology and is a regular speaker with Zeminar, Shona.ie, Let's Talk Mental Health at Work, Network Ireland, the Psychological Society of Ireland, and The Irish Hospice Foundation. She will share her learnings and insights as she navigates her own experience of grief, having suffered a traumatic loss in March 2017, when her sister, Capt. Dara Fitzpatrick, was one of the four crew killed when Irish Coast Guard rescue helicopter Rescue 116 crashed while out on a mission. This session may be especially beneficial for parents seeking to understand their children's unique perspectives on grief, and those navigating traumatic or sudden losses. .Parents are also invited to register via this link:

MATT TALBOT NOVENA 2025

St. Senan's Church, Kilrush

Monday 17th November at 7.30pm

Rita O'Dwyer – Minister of Pastoral Care in KIB & Miltown Malbay Parishes

Finding Hope in the midst of our Human Story

Finding Hope in Praying for our faithful Departed

In this Jubilee Year of Hope we pray in a special way to Matt Talbot as it marks the Centenary of his death.

“Those who hope in the Lord will be strengthened and will be able to run & walk without growing weary”

REFLECTION

When I go, don't learn to live without me,

Just learn to live with my love, tender and free,

In a different way, we'll find our path anew,

Our souls entwined, forever me and you.

And if you need to see me, close your eyes,

Or look in your shadow, where love never dies,

When the sun shines, in its golden ray,

I'm there beside you, in each moment, every day.

Sit with me in the quiet, feel the gentle breeze,

In nature's embrace, find your inner peace,

You will know I didn't leave, I'm here to stay,

In the whispers of the wind, in the light of the day.

There's no leaving when our souls are joined,

In the passing of time, our love's design,

So when I go, don't mourn, don't grieve,

Just find me in the moments, where our love still breathes.

When I go, my love, please don't despair,

For I am with you always, in the whispers in the air,

In the beauty of the world, in the love we shared,

In every moment, my presence, you'll be aware.
